CHRISTIAN STREET YMCA MAKES “HEALTHY KIDS DAY”
A DAY OF FUN FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY

PHILADELPHIA – April 12, 2007 – The Christian Street YMCA joins thousands of YMCA’s across the country in celebrating “Healthy Kids Day” on Saturday, April 14th. Healthy Kids Day is a national celebration of fitness initiatives designed for the entire family. The day is devoted entirely to family exercise and healthy eating. The event is free and open to the community.

Healthy Kids Day will be held from 9am – 2pm at the Christian Street YMCA, located at 1724 Christian Street in South Philadelphia. Activities scheduled for the day include: Cooking Courses, Swimming, Aerobics, Arts & Crafts and music by the Philadelphia Clef Club.

“At the YMCA, we believe that healthy lifestyles are crucial to children and all family members but that eating well and exercising should not be considered chores,” says Michele Stevenson, executive director at the Christian Street YMCA. “Healthy Kids Day is a perfect time to introduce families to enjoyable exercise ideas and delicious and nutritious foods.”

Annually on Healthy Kids Day, the YMCA of Philadelphia & Vicinity reaches 12,000 residents from Philadelphia, Montgomery and Delaware Counties with information on how to be healthier in every aspect of life.

Located at 1724 Christian Street in South Philadelphia, the Christian Street YMCA provides quality programming and resources for youth, teens, adults and individuals with disabilities, including full-day and after-school child care, summer camp, youth sports, teen leadership and adult fitness.
